

Corporate Communion Mass: A Celebration of Fraternity and Faith

St. Benedict Knights of Columbus Council 3061

Invitation to the Corporate Communion Mass

The St. Benedict Knights of Columbus Council 3061 cordially invites all members and their families to participate in our first quarterly Corporate Communion Mass at St. Benedict Catholic Church. This sacred gathering will take place on Sunday, October 19, 2025, during the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

The Significance of Corporate Communion

The Corporate Communion Mass stands as a profound testament to the communal nature of our faith. It serves as a vivid reminder that belief is not merely a private matter, but a gift meant to be shared and celebrated together. When the Knights and their families unite at the Eucharistic table, they exemplify the transformative power of faith and the enduring strength of our community. In an era often marked by isolation and division, occasions such as this offer a beacon of hope and unity.

Dress and Decorum

In recognition of the solemnity and joy of this event, all attendees are respectfully requested to wear formal attire. Gentlemen are asked to dress in a suit and tie. This tradition is more than a formality; it is an outward sign of reverence for the sacredness of our celebration, the dignity of our church, and the bonds we cherish as Council members and families. A collective commitment to presenting ourselves with excellence and respect underscores the values that define our Order.

A Call to Fellowship

We eagerly anticipate a strong turnout for this meaningful celebration. Let us come together in fellowship, renewing our commitment to our faith and to one another as Knights of Columbus.

Vivant Jesus,

David J. Schexnayder

Grand Knight

St. Benedict Knights of Columbus Covington Council 3061